Dear Bronna,

New Community Corp. would like to offer its deepest thanks to Second Chance Toys and 1 800-GOT-JUNK? for the exciting toy delivery to our Harmony House transitional living facility yesterday. The guest appearance by Giants punter Steve Weatherford and Newark Mayor Luis Quintana created an even more jubilant atmosphere as hundreds of toys arrived at the facility.

One of the Harmony House parents, a mother of five named Samantha Reese, called the event just "awesome," commending Weatherford and the mayor for wanting to give back to the community and be part of such an outreach. This is what it's all about Bronna. These homeless parents are so appreciative of receiving these gently-used toys, as many now have something to put under the Christmas tree for their children.

Again, New Community would like to offer its thanks for the amazing toy delivery to our children. You really touched many lives and we are so deeply appreciative.

Sincerely,

Diane Young-Garrett
Harmony House Administrator
